

HEADQUARTERS
NEW YORK - NEW JERSEY SUBAREA
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
FORT TOTTEN, LONG ISLAND, NEW YORK

6 October 1950

Dear Beetle:

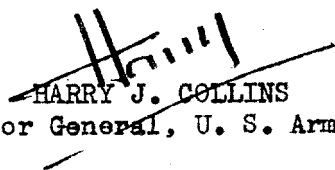

Not knowing your present address, I am sending this note to First Army.

Inclosed is a letter from [redacted] which is self-explanatory. He is trying very hard to be of further service to his country. There is no need of my telling you of [redacted] because you know him longer than I; however, I sincerely hope that you can find a place for him.

Irene and I enjoyed very much our short but pleasant visit with you and Nora the other night at Governors Island, and only wish you could have stayed on longer at First Army.

Irene joins me in very best regards to you and Nora.

Faithfully yours,

HARRY J. COLLINS

Major General, U. S. Army
